

2024 WNCC Convention Agenda
September 26-27th
Emerald Resort, Hyannis MA

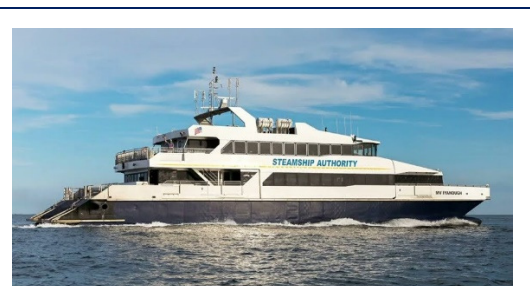

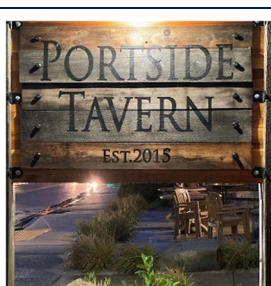

Thursday, September 26th

5:30 - 6:30 PM	Catch-up and Cocktails at Tugboats Restaurant , which is a lovely waterside location less than 2 miles from our hotel.
6:30 PM	Annual Club Dinner at Tugboats Restaurant . We can order off the menu with separate checks per couple. No pre-payment required for meals, however we need to know how many people will be attending (since limited space available). Sign up on convention registration form (or email Sue).

Friday, September 27th

6:30 - 7:30 AM	Wallace Nutting & Nutting-Like Marketplace - Exhibitor set-up (Cape Cod room)
7:30 - 9:30 AM	The Marketplace will offer lots of Buying & Selling opportunities where there'll be something for everyone & deals to be had! Tables will remain set up throughout the morning.
9:30 - 9:45 AM	Annual Meeting
9:45 – 11:30 AM: Presentations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ “LWD. David Davidson’s Silent Business Partner” - by Mike Pellegrino ➤ “Framed...Keeping Our Favorite Art Safe For a Lifetime” – by Tieler Niedzwiecki <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Tieler will discuss a bit of picture frame history and segue into some of the different styles of frames that you see on artwork c. 1900-1940. He'll also bring in some examples and would like other members to share their interestingly framed pieces as well (either in photos or bring them along). ➤ “Afternoon in Nantucket” – by Sue & Mike Ivankovich, and Sharon Lacasse <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Take a stroll with us through the streets, landscapes & seaside scenes taken by Nutting, Sawyer, Davidson, Coffin & Gardiner. This will help pave the way for our trip and tour of “The Grey Lady of the Sea”.
Friday Afternoon	Lunch & any afternoon activities will be on your own. Closer to the hotel, there are a wide variety of restaurants and shops along Main Street (and free parking lots!), plus there are sightseeing, walking, or museum tours to choose from (see list of suggestions below). Or going further afield, there are great towns to explore all around the Cape. We'll provide maps & brochures to assist in getting around with ease.
Friday Evening: 5:30 PM: Cocktails 6:30 PM: Dinner	For all those who would like to join us, we have made arrangements to have dinner at the Portside Tavern which is only 5 minutes from our hotel. Our group will have the 2 nd floor (stairs-only access) with its own bar area to ourselves. We'll be ordering off the menu with separate checks per couple, so there is no pre-payment required for meals. But we also need to know how many people will be attending (since limited space available). Sign up on convention registration form (or email Sue).

Saturday, September 28th – Trip to Nantucket (weather permitting)

Hi-Speed Ferry:

- 8:15 AM: Departure from Hyannis Terminal (69 South St). Arrive at ticket office for check-in by 7:30 AM. Car-pooling is highly recommended since parking is limited and it's pay-to-park. The port is only about 5 minutes from our hotel.
- 9:15 AM: Arrival in Nantucket
- 3:30 PM: Departure from Nantucket (arrive at Terminal by 3:00).
- 4:30 PM: Arrival back in Hyannis

Van Tour with Barrett's Tours

9:30 – approx. 11.00 AM

We will board the van right at the ferry terminal.

This narrated tour will take in the scenic beauty of the island with its historic and picturesque locations. And where possible, areas that were captured in favorite early 20th c. photographs will be pointed out.

Note: There is no restroom on the van. Use the terminal bathroom on the mainland or on the ferry before arriving in port.

Suggestions for Lunch on Nantucket:

- Surfside (2 Broad St)
- Brother Hood of Thieves (23 Broad St)
- The Tavern (1 Harbor Square)
- Provisions (3 Harbor Square) – take-out sandwiches
